

Neria Cohen

Brooklyn-based Neria Cohen originates from South Africa where she completed an honors degree in Drama, Film and English. She has worked in the post-production film industry in New York. Her credits include "Looking for Richard" with Al Pacino. After studying in Safed, Israel, Neria served as an editor and Creative Event Planner at the Meaningful Life Center. Neria has been studying Jewish mysticism for over a decade in Israel and the United States. She is currently traveling the world with her innovative spiritual art seminars.

Jewish Meditation & Painting workshop

MONDAY
JANUARY 14
7:00 PM

the colors of the soul

a project of
Jewish Women's Circle
Chabad Jewish Center
8707 W. State St., Suite D, Boise, ID 83714

Jewish Women's Circle

The Jewish Women's Circle meets throughout the year at various homes and venues. Informal settings provide an opportunity for meeting new friends, learning, social action and creativity.

We celebrate the uniquely feminine destiny of Jewish women and the decisive role we play in the ultimate purpose of our world.

RSVP by January 7, 2008.
To RSVP or for more information:

Phone: 853-9200

E-mail: esther@jewishidaho.com

Web: www.jewishidaho.com/women

Scholarships available. No one will be turned away for lack of funds.

VENUE:

Chabad Jewish Center
8707 W. State St.
Boise, ID 83714

COUVERT:

$25; Free for JWC members;
$100 Sponsor
(art supplies will be provided)

ACTIVITY:

A unique workshop, based on Jewish Mysticism, will guide you on a journey through your soul, stirring the imagination and the subconscious mind. Explore your inner landscape by painting a canvas to take home. No painting skill or experience necessary.

WHOM:

All women and girls high-school age and up.
Bring a friend!

PLUS:

Delectable Dessert Buffet; Raffle